

Managing a Discharging Grommet: Video and Action Plan

Dear Patient and/or Carer,

Thank you for getting in touch about a discharging grommet (fluid draining from the ear). This is a common issue that can often be managed effectively. To help you understand why this happens and the recommended steps for care, we ask that you please watch the educational video below.

This also includes a questionnaire to guide you through the process and confirm your understanding and consent.

https://redcap.link/HENT\_DischargingGrommet